

Update on the European Public Sector Award - EPSA 2019

Call for Applications: deadline extended until 5 May 2019

Does your public sector organisation have new solutions to challenges that are of high priority now and possibly in the future? If so, do not hesitate to present your innovative cases to the EPSA 2019 and stand your chance to get recognised across Europe.

Deadline 5 May 2019

EIPA has just decided to extend the deadline for the submission of applications until Sunday, 5 May 2019 (24.00 Brussels local time CET) in order to allow as many public administrations as possible to take part in this award scheme. Don't miss out this opportunity to get awarded at the European level for your achievements!

EPSA 2019 is an unique opportunity

The EPSA 2019 is a unique opportunity to showcase your innovative, sustainable and citizen-centric solutions to today's and tomorrow's complex challenges and to be acknowledged for being at the leading-edge of public sector innovation across Europe. Help others to learn from your success!

It's not too late to apply! Go to our platform www.epsa2021.eu, register and apply, and take part in the EPSA experience.

