

Scholarships for EIPA Master in European Legal Studies offered by Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs of Luxembourg

The Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs of Luxembourg (MFEA) is now welcoming applications for scholarships to attend our Master of European Legal Studies (MELS Online) 2021-2023 promotion. These scholarships are available to applicants from Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo, North Macedonia, Montenegro, Serbia, and Turkey. The scholarships allow six qualified candidates to attend our Master programme in European Legal Studies in Luxembourg.

A unique online Master programme

The Master of European Legal Studies (MELS Online), a truly international study programme, is offered in partnership with the University of Lorraine in France.

It is a unique study programme adapted to align with students' existing professional responsibilities. The completion of this programme can be the perfect springboard for the next step in a professional career.

The MELS Online programme is designed to achieve two principal aims:

- to provide an initial background to the fundamental issues underlying the European integration process; and
- to offer progressive and increasing specialisation in the vast field of European law to enable students to deal with legal questions in a practical way with no prior law degree required.

Find more information on the Master of European Legal Studies here.

Coverage of full tuition fees and contribution to travel expenses

The scholarship will cover the full tuition fee for six beneficiaries, including access to all online sessions and materials for distance learning. Scholarship beneficiaries will also receive a contribution towards international air travel expenses over two academic years for eight travels to Luxembourg for up to €4,900 and a contribution towards daily costs in Luxembourg when attending the face-to-face courses (once Covid-19-related travel restrictions have been lifted). Find more specifics on this scholarship opportunity and the detailed scholarship eligibility requirements here.

The deadline for scholarship applications is 31 May 2021.